

OPEN HOUSE SCHEDULE

Family-friendly activities will be available all day in the Holland and Sallie Webb Learning Center. Vendors will also be set-up throughout the Museum. Please note, times and locations are subject to change. Contact the Museum's program department (programs@motrr.org) for more information.

10:00 AM

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, the JL Lion Dancers
The lion dance is a traditional Chinese dance that mimics the movements of a lion. The dance is believed to bring good fortune and luck.

10:30 AM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Monty Harper
Monty Harper is a children's songwriter and performer. He wrote the "Acro Song".

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Performance by members of the Caddo Nation

Mini- Balloon art workshop, balloon, and face painting—by Pretty Funny Balloons
Note: Pretty Funny Balloons is creating a life-sized replica of Acrocanthosaurus

[Classroom] Painting Demonstration (Youth Artist Landon Zimmerman)

11:00 AM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by dancers from the Choctaw Nation

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] State Archeologist, Kary Stackelbeck
Archeology in Oklahoma and Oklahoma's response to the destruction of the Caddo Mounds in Alto, TX

Mini- Balloon art workshop, balloon, and face painting—by Pretty Funny Balloons
Note: Pretty Funny Balloons is creating a life-sized replica of Acrocanthosaurus

[Classroom] Artist Demonstration TBD

Noon:

[Lunch] Lee's BBQ will be at the Museum for anyone who wants to stay on-site.

1:00 PM

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] Lecture, Dr. Kenneth Carpenter
Dr. Carpenter is the leading expert on the Oklahoma State Dinosaur, Acrocanthosaurus atokensis. He is the author of "Acrocanthosaurus: Inside and Out".

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Dondoko Taiko
Taiko refers to a range of Japanese percussion instruments.

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Mini- Balloon art workshop, balloon, and face painting—by Pretty Funny Balloons
Note: Pretty Funny Balloons is creating a life-sized replica of Acrocanthosaurus

[Classroom] Artist Demonstration by Chris Powell, Sculptor

2:00 PM

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] Artifact identification
Two former state archeologists, Dr. Robert Brooks andCarolynn Neal, will identify any artifacts free-of-charge. Please note, per Museum policy, a monetary valuation will not be assigned.

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Tim Nevaquaya
Tim Nevaquaya is a gift flutist and artist. He is the son of "Doc Tate" Nevaquaya, an acclaimed Comanche artist.

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Mini- Balloon art workshop, balloon, and face painting—by Pretty Funny Balloons
Note: Pretty Funny Balloons is creating a life-sized replica of Acrocanthosaurus

[Classroom] Artist Demonstration TBD

3:00 PM

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] Artifact identification
Two former state archeologists, Dr. Robert Brooks andCarolynn Neal, will identify any artifacts free-of-charge. Please note, per Museum policy, a monetary valuation will not be assigned.

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Monty Harper
Monty Harper is a children's songwriter and performer. He wrote the "Acro Song".

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Mini- Balloon art workshop, balloon, and face painting—by Pretty Funny Balloons

Note: Pretty Funny Balloons is creating a life-sized replica of Acrocanthosaurus

[Classroom] Fun with Clay (Mini Version)

5:00 PM

Museum Closes