

OPEN HOUSE SCHEDULE

Family-friendly activities will be available all day in the Holland and Sallie Webb Learning Center. Vendors will also be set-up throughout the Museum. Please note, times and locations are subject to change. Additional activities and performances will be added. Contact the Museum's program department (programs@motrr.org) for more information.

10:00 AM

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, with performances by Dondoko Taiko and JL Lion Dancers

10:30 AM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Monty Harper
Monty Harper is a children's songwriter and performer. He wrote the "Acro Song".

11:00 AM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by dancers from the Choctaw Nation

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] Artifact identification
Two former state archeologists, Dr. Robert Brooks andCarolynn Neal, will identify any artifacts free-of-charge. Please note, per Museum policy, a monetary valuation will not be assigned.

State Archeologist, Kary Stackelbeck
Archeology in Oklahoma and Oklahoma's response to the destruction of the Caddo Mounds in Alto, TX

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Balloon art workshop, balloon animals, and face painting—featuring Pretty Funny Balloons (Indiana)

[Classroom] Painting Demonstration (Youth Artist Landon Zimmerman)

11:30 AM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Dondoko Taiko
Taiko refers to a range of Japanese percussion instruments.

Noon:

[Lunch] Lee's BBQ will be at the Museum for anyone who wants to stay on-site.

1:00 PM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by JL Lion Dancers
The lion dance is a traditional Chinese dance that mimics the movements of a lion. The dance is believed to bring good fortune and luck.

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center]

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Lecture, Dr. Kenneth Carpenter
Dr. Carpenter is the leading expert on the Oklahoma State Dinosaur, Acrocanthosaurus atokensis. He is the author of "Acrocanthosaurus: Inside and Out".

[Classroom] Fun with Clay (Mini Version)

2:00 PM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Tim Nevaquaya
Tim Nevaquaya is a gift flutist and artist. He is the son of "Doc Tate" Nevaquaya, an acclaimed Comanche artist.

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] TBD

[Don and Mary Etta Herron Reception Hall] Balloon art workshop, balloon animals, and face painting—featuring Pretty Funny Balloons (Indiana)

[Classroom] Artist Demonstration TBD

3:00 PM

[M. "Jack" Bell Hall] Performance by Monty Harper
Monty Harper is a children's songwriter and performer. He wrote the "Acro Song".

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] TBD

[Mary H. Herron Community Conference Center] Balloon art workshop, balloon animals, and face painting—featuring Pretty Funny Balloons (Indiana)

[Classroom] Fun with Looms (Mini Version)